In short: Organised

Our new STAVANGER ampoule systems inspire with their clear arrangement and organization of medication and all other materials required. The unique retaining clips developed by us protect the sensitive glass ampoules and guarantee quick removal in an emergency case. The clips can be arranged both lengthwise and crosswise to make optimal use of the space available. Never before has it been so easy to store many ampoules. With the support of labeling clips, refilling is child's play. The ampoule arsenals are available in different sizes with different fittings. Your advantage: All individual parts can be reordered.
